

ANNE WIPRUD SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Anne Rehbein Wiprud served the residents of Teton County as a Montana State University (MSU) Extension Agent. She was working in this capacity at the time of her death in an automobile accident on May 28, 1986. Her unborn child also perished in the accident. She was survived by her husband, Clarence and son, Kelly. Anne's concern for and understanding of her clients was admired by those who knew her. This scholarship was established with donations in memory of Anne, so that today she remains associated with the education of Teton County youth.
